

Healthcare

Apprenticeships

GCSEs grade A* to C, obtained in Wales, including maths numeracy

International GCSEs or equivalent level 1 or level 2 certificates grade A* to C or 9 to 4

Scottish Standard Grades (credit level) grade 1 to 2

Core maths qualifications at level 3

Scottish National 5 certificates grade A to C

Functional Skills Level 2 equivalents

A and AS levels at any pass grade

International O levels grade A* to C

GCSEs grade A* to C, obtained in Northern Ireland

Full International Baccalaureate (IB) level 3 Diploma

Scottish Intermediate 2 certificates grade A to C

International Baccalaureate Certificate in maths

The Department for Education treats some qualifications in maths and English (language and literature) as equivalent to GCSE grade 9 to 4 or A* to C

If your apprentice already holds one of these (and have copies of the relevant certificates) they may not need to undertake the English or maths functional skills element of the apprenticeship. Always check the individual apprenticeship standard to be sure.