Tips for Customizing Your Cover Letter

1. Research the Role and Company

- Mention specific projects, goals, or values of the company to demonstrate genuine interest.
- Use the job description to identify key skills and experiences to emphasize.

2. Be Personal and Professional

- Address the letter to a specific person (if possible). Avoid generic openings such as "To Whom It May Concern."

3. Focus on Achievements

- Use metrics and results to support your claims (e.g., "Increased sales by 20%" or "Streamlined a process that saved 15 hours per week").

4. Keep It Concise

- Limit your cover letter to one page with 3–4 short paragraphs.

Action Words and Phrases to Use

- For Leadership Roles: Spearheaded, Directed, Organized, Delegated, Mentored.
- For Creative Roles: Designed, Conceptualized, Edited, Innovated, Composed.
- For Technical Roles: Developed, Engineered, Implemented, Analyzed, Debugged.
- For Academic Roles: Researched, Published, Presented, Instructed, Facilitated.

Common Cover Letter Mistakes to Avoid

1. Overuse of Generic Language

- Avoid vague phrases like “I am a hard worker” unless you provide specific examples.

2. Repeating Your Resume

- Use the cover letter to expand on achievements, not just restate them.

3. Spelling and Grammar Errors

- Proofread carefully or use tools like Grammarly to ensure accuracy.

4. Not Tailoring to the Role

- A one-size-fits-all approach will fail to capture the reader’s attention.
